

CYCLING CANADA – JUNIOR TALENT IDENTIFICATION CAMP
Burnaby Velodrome, Burnaby, BC
November 9-11, 2012

Dear Junior athletes, coaches and provincial associations,

The Burnaby Velodrome, Cycling BC and Cycling Canada are pleased to announce the season's first training camp for Cadet and Junior aged athletes at the Burnaby Velodrome in Burnaby, BC.

Included in the camp will be multiple track training sessions in addition to the weekend Superior Glass Track Classic. The main focus of the camp will be learning essential track skills with an emphasis on team pursuit and team sprint. This camp is the first in a nation-wide program to serve as talent identification for the national track program, with an eye towards identifying possible 2016 and 2020 athletes.

Any riders interested in taking part are asked to send an application via email to Cycling BC development coach Jeff Ain at jeff (at) cyclingbc.net. Space is limited, and these camps have sold out for the past three seasons. Cost will be approximately $70, including camp, race entry, bike rental (if required) and is open to riders 13-18.

For more information, race hotel discount rate, race schedule and race entry please sign up as a track user at www.burnabyvelodrome.ca and then sign up using our secure on-line registration.

* A more in depth training schedule will be provided closer to the camp.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me at track@cyclingcanada.ca.

Kind Regards,

Sara POUTANEN
