

TRACK PERFORMANCE DEVELOPMENT CAMP

February 18-22, 2012

1.0 INTRODUCTION

Cycling Canada will be conducting a development training camp in Los Angeles, California for all athletes from 18 to 25 years of age looking to further develop their track skills. This talent ID camp will help identify athletes that will take part in the elite national team programs of the 2016 and 2020 Olympic cycles.

This camp will serve as an opportunity for all development athletes to familiarize themselves with a 250m track, learn basic track skills and attempt the benchmarked time standards.

Athletes interested in participating in this should contact Track Coordinator, Sara Poutanen (track@cyclingscanada.ca) prior to January 15th, 2012.

2.0 CAMP OBJECTIVES AND FEATURES

The main objectives of this Performance Development camp are:

- Increase the endurance and sprint athlete pool
- Create discipline specific training groups
- Provide Canadian athletes the opportunity for training and racing on a world class 250m Velodrome
- Introduce start techniques, flying approaches, pacing strategies, team and Individual pursuit technique, sprint and bunch race tactics
- Assess athletes on their skills and conditioning, their strengths and weaknesses throughout the week long camps – this will allow coaches to evaluate current fitness and form a baseline for future improvements

3.0 CAMP SIZE

Approximate camp size is 18 athletes. CC reserves the right to increase or decrease the size of this camp based on athlete interest level, athlete performance level, available funds and logistical considerations.

4.0 ELIGIBILITY

All development athletes with provincial team cycling experience between the ages of 18 and 25.
