There will be no Canadian champion title awarded in the Points or Scratch races for elite women and men.

4.1.2 Individual Pursuit & Time Trial

Due to the changes to the Omnium format introduced in 2016, the Individual Pursuit and Time Trial are now standalone events.

For the Individual Pursuit, there will be a qualifying round in heats of 2 riders to select the best 4 riders on the basis of their times, followed by the finals. The two fastest riders from the qualifying round will race for 1st and 2nd place. The 3rd and 4th fastest riders will race for 3rd and 4th place.

For the Time Trial, there will be no qualification round. It will be conducted as a final.

4.1.3 Sprint

Qualification will be a 200m flying start. Fastest 16 riders* will qualify for the 1/8 finals. Seeding order will be determined by qualification time.

*If there are less than 16 starters in a category, 8 riders will qualify and the tournament will start with 1/4 finals.

For Elite categories, the 1/4, 1/2 and Finals will be conducted as a best of 3. The 1/16 and 1/8 rounds will be single rides.

The format of the sprint competition is subject to change based on the number of participants.

In all cases, for Master categories, only the final will be a best of 3.
